

Podiatrists Board of Queensland

Podiatrists who have the following qualifications have received the relevant training within the course to use the extended range of local anaesthetics listed in the Health (Drugs & Poisons) Regulation 1996:

- Bachelor of Health Science (Podiatry) QUT – graduates from 2007
- Bachelor of Health Science (Podiatry) Charles Sturt University – graduates from 2005
- Bachelor of Podiatric Medicine, University of Western Australia – graduates from 2009
- Master of Science (Podiatry), Curtin University
- Master of Podiatry, Curtin University
- Bachelor of Podiatry, University of South Australia (formerly SA Institute of Technology) graduates from 1981
- Master of Health Sciences (Podiatry), University of South Australia
- Bachelor of Applied Science (Podiatry), University of Western Sydney
- Bachelor of Podiatry, La Trobe University - graduates from 2003
- Bachelor of Health Sciences / Master of Podiatric Practice, La Trobe University - graduates from 2003
- Bachelor of Podiatry (Hons), La Trobe University – graduates from 1992;
- Graduate Diploma in Podiatry, La Trobe University – graduates from early 1990.